

Resolution: United Front Against Trump Agenda

Whereas: The election of Donald Trump is dangerous for all working people, especially immigrants, people of color, women, and LGBTQ people, and

Whereas: A president Donald Trump, coupled with Republican control of the House and Senate, raises the very real possibility of

- a. national anti-worker legislation, which would decimate labor unions,
- b. a Supreme Court friendly to another “Friedrich” type attack on public and private sector unions,
- c. an employer-friendly National Labor Relations Board which could reverse the gains of the last several decades,
- d. an anti-union, anti-worker Department of Labor,
- e. the deportation of millions of undocumented workers,
- f. the exclusion, surveillance, profiling and incarceration of our Muslim brothers and sisters,
- g. major restrictions on women’s reproductive rights,
- h. the return of anti-LGBTQ laws,
- i. the increased intimidation and assaults on our most vulnerable members by racist, sexist, homophobic and xenophobic predators, and

Whereas: Spontaneous protests have erupted across the country immediately following the Trump election, and

Whereas: Many national and local student, labor and community groups are planning for massive protests on the weekend of Trump’s Inauguration, January 20-22, and

Whereas: A united front of all those threatened by the Trump presidency will be needed to defend each, therefore be it

Resolved: that AFSCME Local 88 pledges to encourage its members in concert with other labor unions for local protest actions on Inauguration weekend, and be it finally

Resolved: that AFSCME Local 88 will forward this resolution to its members, recommending they join the Inauguration weekend actions as well.
